ADVENT WINDOWS - Here's something different for this December! We are planning to create in Burpham a village-size Advent Calendar - windows around the village decorated with the themes of Christmas carols and songs.

Would you like to take part by hosting a window?

Nothing elaborate needed. Scan the QR code or contact the office for more information.

Burpham Church Toddlers

- Planning Meeting Wed 22nd October, 10.00 - 11am
- Sorting cupboards & toys Wed 29th October, 10.00- 3pm

As part of the vision for Burpham Church, we're excited to be relaunching our toddler group at CHS. As a church our vision is to reach out to the local community, and share with them the love of God, through serving, building relationships and providing a supportive and welcoming environment. Running a weekly toddler group gives us an amazing opportunity to develop and deliver this mission.

The group will run on Wednesday, during the school term time from 9.30am – 11.00am. We plan to open on Wednesday 5th November.

We would love the whole church to get behind this project in the following ways:

- * Prayers – ideas below
- * Invite – think about who you might invite along
- * Help – is there something you could offer to do?
This doesn't have to be with the children!

Would you join us in prayer?

Wk beg 19th Oct – vision and team meeting

Wk beg 26th Oct – preparation for opening

If you want to know more about this missional opportunity please speak to Carol Lowries, Intergenerational Minister or email IGMinister@burphamchurch.org.uk

You are invited to celebrate 60 years of worship at CHS!
22nd & 23rd November

For the full itinerary and to book please go to the church website.

Tuesday Prayers 10-10.30am
at CHS. An opportunity to pray together with refreshments.

Midweek Communion 1st Thursday of the month 10am at CHS and on the 4th Thursday 12 noon at St. Luke's

Don't forget!

Clocks go back next week on Sunday 26th October.

If someone came to you and said 'Who is Jesus?', what would you answer? We know He is the name above all names, but there are so many names of Jesus in the Bible that we sometimes lose sight of who He is to us. The Nicene Creed gives us a language not just of what we share as belief, but some really helpful words to help us grasp afresh who He is. The wonderful phrasing of the creedal belief: "One Lord, Jesus Christ, the only son of God, eternally begotten of the Father" shows us that Jesus is Revealed - the image of the invisible God, the one in whom the creator reveals himself, and reminds us that God speaks to us through his son. He is the Reflector of God's glory - because God's fullness dwells in Him, and whoever has seen the Son has seen the Father. He is the exact imprint of God's very being. He is the Reconciler - the one who built the bridge to repair the chasm we have made between us and God through our sin. This bridge is the way, the path back to a right relationship with God. It is a bridge made from his body and his blood, poured out for us. And, Jesus is the one who Reigns - He is the one Lord, the one who sits at the right hand of the Father - the one who reigns above it all, and the one whose kingdom we are entrusted to help build here on earth until He comes again. For so many of the earthly Kings and Queens whose rule has been marred by disaster, evil or ruin, Jesus is the true King - the one who reigns eternally. He is supreme over all creation, and the head of the body - His church. Just take a moment to ponder afresh who Jesus is, why He came into the world for us, and what his Kingship might look like - then praise Him for all he was, is and is to come. Blessings, Rev James
